Medical and Surgical INSTITUTE.

, CONSULTATION, IN ALL CASES, FREE.

, CURES GUARANTEED, OR NO PAY REQUIRED.

, IN ALL CASES WHERE CONFIDENCE IS REQUIRED THE UTMOST SECRECY MAINTAINED.

The above rules, established by Dr. J. C. Young in 1856, and which have done so much to secure the reputation of this Institute, are still adhered to, affording those in need of medical aid, the certainty of cure and the utmost confidence.

There is nothing of so great importance to the sick as to know where to find a physician whose skill and humanity [illegible] proper and [illegible] treatment. The Doctor [illegible] said respectfully call the attention of those of both sexes who are suffering on [illegible] the invariable success that has marked the career of the Institute in the seventeen years of its existence.

It is unnecessary in this connection to enumerate all the complaints treated at the Institute, but the Doctor feels it his duty to call especial attention to that [illegible] SEMINAL WEAKNESS, That is sapping with its insidiousness the very life of its victims; in the treatment and [illegible] of which the Institute has [illegible] an enviable [illegible].

LETTERS FROM THE CAPITAL.

SALEM, Sept. 18th, 1868.

Very little work was done to-day in either House. The contested case in the House is receiving the eager attention of the Democratic members, and until they are disposed of, the sessions will be short. Mr. Cox, of Josephine, Chairman of the Special Committee to whom was referred the petitions of Bellinger and Carlile, of Benton county, brought in a report this morning from the majority of the Committee. It states that the Committee find nineteen illegal votes were cast for Beneal and Alexander, and two illegal votes for Bellinger and Carlile. At the June election, Alexander received 539 votes; Beneal, 532; Bellinger, 523, and Carlile, 521. Throwing out the votes alleged to be illegal and so found by the Democratic majority of the Committees. Bellinger would be let in by a majority over Beneal and over Alexander. Carlile would have five over Beneal, but would be one vote behind Alexander. Bellinger and Alexander would have the highest votes and therefore be elected. The report recommends that the seat of Beneal be declared vacant and that Bellinger be admitted thereto. It is understood that the minority will make a report somewhat at variance with the majority's as to the facts; but I am not informed as to what will be its conclusions. The votes objected to by Bellinger are eleven for want of residence: three employes of the Government at the Siletz Reservation; three or four not naturalized, and one half breed Indian. The Democracy were not so particularly fastidious about half breed votes at Portland, Columbia county and Wasco county, at the June election. The House will no doubt base its action in the premises upon the majority report, whatever may be said by the minority. The testimony will very likely be brought in, and then its value may be more thoroughly sifted. There is also a question of law as to whether the employes at the reservation are legal voters. It will thus be seen that the report of the Committee is not conclusive, though I have not much doubt but that a majority will be disposed to cut right through all knotty questions of law and fact which they may not understand and vote directly on the question of preference as between a Democrat and Republican, which they will understand. If the House follow in the wake of the Senate, the formality of an investigation and the inquiry as to who was elected by the people and who has a right to the seat, might just as well have been omitted; the House has a Democratic majority—why not just wipe out Republican members enough to leave a Democratic majority of two-thirds without the mockery of a formal contest? It will be done in the end; why prolong the agony? It is understood that the Democratic programme contemplates the ousting of enough Republicans in each house to secure a two-thirds majority in each. Since the action of the Senate, it will not surprise anybody if this be done yet by mere resolution, should not a sufficient number of contestants be drummed up to give the proceeding an air of regularity and fairness. Cain is contesting Trullinger's seat, without having ever given any notice of contest, and the committee to whom his petition was referred, decides that Trullinger must go on with the trial, though it had the fairness to give him time to procure his evidence. A good many people are a little astonished at some of these doings and exclaim, "Why, how can the Democrats do so and so! It is not lawful! It is not constitutional!" These people are green. They do not yet appreciate the fact that the Legislature has a majority of Democratic votes now, in each house, and that thus constituted, there is nothing impossible with the Legislature.

Mr. Brown, this morning, presented a petition numerously signed, praying for the passage of a law establishing a system of free schools for the State. It was referred to the Committee on Education.

Col. Chapman offered a resolution which was adopted, instructing the committee on commerce to inquire into the expediency of reducing the rates of pilotage charged vessels entering and departing the Columbia river. The pilot charges have always been a sort of incubus upon our commerce and should be reduced. The late surveys of the channel by United States authority have put a new face upon the matter, and removed an impression which the pilots have always carefully cultivated, that the entrance to the Columbia is an unusually dangerous one. This bugbear having been stripped of its terrors, the next proper step is to strip the pilots of a portion of the enormous profits they are now making off it, and thus relieve the people of the State of an enormous tax added to everything they consume by way of high freight charges to compensate (as ship owners say) for extraordinary risks in entering our river.

Mr. Benson, of Union, gave notice of a bill to provide for draining school lands in Union county. An attempted scoop into the treasury for this purpose, was defeated at the last session.

Mr. Gasley introduced a bill to repeal the law prescribing the oath of allegiance in certain cases. The House refused to print.

Mr. Ryan, of Wasco, this afternoon offered in the House a joint resolution memorialising Congress for an appropriation of $75,000 to build a military road from Portland to Dalles along the south side of the Columbia river. The necessity of the road was duly set forth. The experiences of last winter leave no question of the importance of such a road both to the Government and the people.

The Senate joint resolution to appoint a committee on the Insane Asylum and to authorize the Committee to visit the Asylum, during the session, came into the House this afternoon and was immediately attacked by Gasley, Minto, Waymire, and others, who opposed it on the ground that the visit of the Committee to the Asylum would entail a needless expense of four hundred to six hundred dollars. Mr. Waymire made a particularly warm and forcible attack on that proposition, and intimated that he thought the time had come when the enormous leak from the treasury into the pockets of Drs. Hawthorne & Loryea should be stopped. He was in favor of beginning the building of an Asylum at Salem, and he believed that with convict labor it could be done without adding a cent to the taxes of the country. Messrs. Gasley and Minto expressed similar views. The result was that the motion to concur in the adoption of the resolution was defeated by a tie vote—22 and 22—Republicans, generally, voting in the negative. It is understood that parties here of ample responsibility will submit proposals to take the care of the insane, at the expiration of the present contract, at a very considerable less figure than that now paid; and that should their proposal be accepted they will be ready to remove the insane on the 1st day of December, and to put them into a building every way suitable for their safe keeping. There is an evident disposition in the Legislature to begin very soon to provide a place for them at the capital.

In the Senate, Mr. Huston moved the appointment of a committee to revise the election laws, and the motion prevailing, Messrs. Huston, Herman and Cochran were appointed. I think the principal object is to secure a change from the viva voce to the ballot mode of voting.

Messrs. Cochran, Stout and Adams were appointed for the Senate on joint committee to investigate the books and accounts of the Treasurer.

The joint resolution instructing special committee to inquire into the expediency of commencing immediately the construction of a wing of the Penitentiary and a wing of the Insane Asylum has been adopted by both houses. The committee is instructed to report by bill or otherwise.

The following are the Senate Standing Committees. They were prematurely announced yesterday morning:

Judiciary—Stout, Crawford and Herman.

Ways and Means—Cochran, Cyrus and Cornelius.

Elections—Hendershott, Miller, of Jackson, and Powell.

Claims—Cyrus, Holtsclaw, and Pershbaker.

Corporations—Ford, Crawford and Adams.

Military Affairs—Trevitt, Dribblesby and Thompson.

Counties—Huston, Ison and Brown.

Commerce—Crawford, Ison and Powell.

Education—Herman, Hendershott and Huston.

Roads and Highways—Ison, Cochran and Cornelius.

Public Lands—Holtsclaw, Hendershott and Thompson.

Engrossments—Trevitt, Crawford and Adams.

Enrollments—Cochran, Ford and Bayley.

Mining—Dribblesby, Holtsclaw and Miller, of Marion.

ENCOURAGING LETTER FROM CALIFORNIA.

A gentleman now here in attendance upon the Supreme Court, has received and handed to me the following encouraging letter from San Francisco, written by Mr. R. Guy McClellan, formerly of this city. Its confident tone is certainly cheering as regards result of the Presidential campaign in California. It bears date Sept. 12th:

"The deep interest that we both feel in the result of the coming Presidential election, and my close observation of political parties and their prospects, encourages me to inform you that there will be a glorious Union victory in California this fall. This is the belief of the great mass of the people. I was in this city when the first rebel gun was fired, and have lived here ever since (with the exception of a few months in your State.)

I witnessed the campaign of 1864, when the good Abraham Lincoln was re-elected. I have watched with my patriotic brothers through the long dark night of the bloody war of the Democracy upon us, and have been with them through their rejoicings when the star of liberty, conquest and hope revealed to us the new nation of freedom. But allow me to assure you that at no period in the history of this State has there been such a harmonious and well organized party as is the National Union Republican Party. All local differences and side issues buried; new camp fires are lighted upon the old camp grounds of 1864, and the great, free, intelligent, patriotic masses of California will march to the polls on the 3d day of November next and vote for Grant and Colfax.

Let me assure you that California need not be calculated to support the Democracy. She is truly Republican, and will cast a majority of full 12,000 for Grant and Colfax."

Impending War.

It seems to be a matter of the utmost difficulty for the rampant "Democracy" of the South to restrain their impatience and wait until the election passes by before beginning a general massacre of the Republicans in that section. For instance, the Chattanooga (Tenn.) Union of the 25th August, advises Fort Pillow Forrest and his friends not to be too hasty, as that might spoil everything; and closes with the following words:

"Suffer any and all taunts or tyranny, until after November, and then—we would rather be a nimble squirrel than a white Radical.

The Mobile Tribune grows rapturous and rhapsodical over the prospect. With true Democratic fervor it exclaims:

> If we are successful in the approaching contest we shall regain all that we have lost in the "Lost Cause." We shall be freemen once more. We shall have a country. We shall be able to reverse the iron rule which has been imposed upon us, and turning that iron into brands of fire, hurl them back on the heads of the flagitious wretches who have inflicted so many foul and flagrant wrongs on our bleeding country. Once more to the breach then—yet once more! And when the cloud shall have cleared away from the flaming field, our flag—the grand old Confederate flag—will be seen in all its glory streaming like the thunderbolt against the wind. Let us rally then, once more, around the DEAR OLD FLAG, which we have followed so often to glory and to victory. Let us plant our standard in the midst of the field and let us once more raise the war cry—"he who doubts is damned: he who dallies is a dastard.""

The Atlanta Constitution is equally devoted to the idea that the "Lost Cause" is to be regained through the help of the "Democracy." Hear its prophetic and ferocious utterances:

> The guilty Belshazzars by whom we have been oppressed, are trembling all over the land. The verdict of an outraged people they read in the handwriting on the wall. They have no [illegible] in view of the terrible judgment awaiting them. Soon there will be a rattling in the valley of dry bones, and the whited sepulchres will expose the rottenness within. Forbear a little longer, draw another draught upon long tried and exhausted patience, step cautiously above the incrusted volcanoes slumbering beneath your feet, with a firm trust in the saving power of Democracy, for the day dawn of a new existence will soon be visible in the east.

Seymour says the South "accepts the results of the war;" and Wade Hampton, the maker of the platform on which Seymour stands, says he and his followers expect to gain by the election of Seymour all they lost in the war, and that he is ready to draw his sword again. These are the inoffensive lambs who are so cruelly worried by the "Radical dogs of despotism!"

New Book.

Exploration of the Nile Tributaries of Abyssinia. The Sources, Supply and Overflow of the Nile; the Country, People, Customs, etc. By Sir S. W. Baker, Author of the "Albert N'yanza Great Basin of the Nile." San Francisco: Francis Dewing & Co. F. R. Curtis, Agent for Oregon.

The former work by this author on the sources of the river Nile gave an account of the equatorial lake system from which the Egyptian branch of that great stream has its sources. The present volume gives a history of the exploration of the Abyssinian tributaries of the Nile. From Abyssinia this river receives two grand affluents, the Blue Nile and the Atbara, and the inundation of Egypt and the deposit of mud are due to the Abyssinian streams. Thus the overflow upon which the fertility of Egypt depends has an origin entirely separate from the parent stream, the supply of water which produces it being derived exclusively from Abyssinia.

Besides an account of the author's explorations, a description of the river system of Abyssinia and a sketch of the physical character of that country,—the whole interspersed with interesting adventures and incidents of travel,—the book contains a statement of the career of the late Emperor Theodore, and a concise account of the causes which led England to send against him the military expedition which brought his career to a tragic close. The volume is an exceedingly handsome one, and a very worthy companion of its predecessor.

The Raleigh (N. C.) Standard of August 28, says that "under the efficient management of General Littlefield, Grand President of the Union League of America in North Carolina, this order is being rapidly organized in every county. The books, papers and correspondence of the league are in perfect order, and we are happy, from a personal examination of the official records, to be able to assure our friends, although the operations of the order are conducted noiselessly and without any parade or display, that there are about seventy thousand enrolled members under a perfect system of organization, extending from the eastern to the western boundaries of the State, and from Virginia to the South Carolina line. The great secret and object of the league is to maintain the laws and preserve peace."

The finance accounts of Great Britain show that the funded debt was £741,190,328 on the 31st of March, 1868, and the unfunded debt £7,911,100. But there is another part of the public debt which has of late grown into more importance than formerly—namely, the terminable annuities, by which the nation is paying off principal as well as interest. These annuities, if capitalized, would amount to about £40,000,000, making the debt about 707,000,000 pounds sterling, or one thousand million dollars more than the debt of the United States.

One of the complaints against the Fourteenth Amendment which Hon. Tappertit T[illegible] proposes to abrogate is, that it has established an equality in the political power of the white people of the North and South. New Hampshire has a white population of 325,579, and South [illegible] 291,388. South Carolina has a b[illegible] of 412,320. Under the rule [illegible] by the Democratic party, the 291,000 whites of South Carolina may elect six representatives to Congress and have six votes for President, while the 325,000 white people of New Hampshire can only elect two members of Congress, and have [illegible] for President. Each white man in South Carolina under that rule has three [illegible] the political power of a white man at the North. The Constitutional Amendment has destroyed this inequality, and placed the white men of both sections on the same footing. It provides that if the State wishes to count her blacks for one political [illegible], she must do so in all political senses; that if the colored race is to be represented in Congress, they shall have a voice in the choice of their representatives. Is this not fair and right?

A Mississippi negro writes as follows from Natchez, (Aug. 26,) to a Chicago paper: "Eight years ago I was a slave, but, thank God, I am now a freeman and a loyal Republican, and there are thousands like me through the State. Our Northern friends must not believe all the rebel lies they see in the Southern rebel Democratic papers about us. They may say what they [illegible] about their 'Southern Democratic [illegible],' and their 'Anti-Radical Clubs' of colo[illegible] but there are very few colored [illegible] who [illegible] slaves who have any faith in [illegible] Democrats. A Happy Defense

We have recently had something to say of Mr Stout. The Herald undertakes to vindicate him with the following [illegible]:

The attack upon Judge Stout is simply a gross libel upon the intelligence of the people of Oregon, who have conferred upon Judge Stout the highest positions in their gift. They have elected him to the several positions of Judge, Representative in Congress, and within the last four months a State Senator over one of the most popular and unexceptionable men in the Republican party. The income of his professional practice we believe exceeds that of any Republican lawyer in the State.

There are a certain class of individuals who are no doubt exceedingly fortunate in finding a defender in a person who sponges his meals at the same lunch table, and gets his drinks from the same bunghole with themselves. A fellow feeling makes them wondrous kind.

To assume that because the Democratic party of Oregon have elected a man to office his character is therefore fully established, is a piece of absurdity too foolish to talk about. What we have said about the individual in question is no libel upon the people of Oregon, for it was not the people of Oregon, not even the Democratic party, who put him in nomination on the only occasion when he ever came before the whole people for an office. He owed his nomination for Congress to a miserable clique of mountebank politicians, and so distasteful was he even to the Democratic party that, though there had always been a Democratic majority in Oregon of from 2,000 to 3,000 votes in a total poll of less than 10,000, he was elected by barely a sixteen majority. The great political achievement of this popular candidate consisted in reducing in a single year the former invincible majority of his party to nothing.

There may be those who are of opinion that a Congressman runs a very successful career whose principal and only memorable achievement at the National Capital consists in scoring up debts to the amount of five or six thousand dollars, chiefly for whisky, and then paying them in a mass by the statute of limitation. This may be a matter of opinion, and it is not to our present purpose to talk about it.

But here is a point which, as the Herald has alluded to it, it does suit our purpose to inquire about. If Mr Stout's income from his professional practice is so large, might he not just as well hand over to the United States his arrears of tax on that magnificent income? The books of the United States Collector show a delinquency on his part remaining from year to year, and amounting in the aggregate to quite a large sum. On one occasion, the United States was fortunate enough to get the tax, as it was nabbed by the vigilance of the Marshal, but the assessment of other years remains unpaid. As the world is now informed by Mr Stout's organ that he has so lucrative a law practice, perhaps on his return from the State Capital he will just step round to the Collector's office and settle the delinquencies of tax on that splendid income. The United States needs the money. We hear also that there are divers and sundry private individuals in this city who are glad to be informed by the organ that the gentleman's income is so large. He will find more people glad to see him on his return than he ever found before in his life.

The statute of limitations affords an excellent way to pay debts, but the mass of creditors, not being able to appreciate the beauty of the laws, have a mean prejudice against it. So fares it always with any scientific system when the dull, insensate herd are allowed to judge it.

Getting Scared

The telegraph reports the following:

NASHVILLE, Sept. 17.—A correspondent of a New York paper, who has been investigating the alleged outrages upon Union men in this neighborhood, has telegraphed to the Northern paper a report that the stories are false in every particular.

It might improve this story somewhat if the names of the "correspondent" and of the "New York paper" were given. In that case no doubt it would be found that the correspondent is himself a member of the Ku Klux gang, and the New York paper one of those disreputable sheets that applauded the assassination of President Lincoln, and habitually advise the murder of political opponents. It is well known that the outrages and murders perpetrated by the rebel Democrats in Tennessee have been so frequent that the Governor has been obliged to call out the militia to suppress them, and that even President Johnson has been compelled by the frequency and ferocity of these outrages to order the military under General Thomas to interfere and put a stop to them. The Northern Copperheads are becoming frightened at the consequences of the savagery of their rebel allies in the South, and are endeavoring by denial to counteract the effect it is having upon the Northern elections.

The Result in Maine

The largest vote ever cast in Maine at any election prior to the one just held was in 1864. In that year the vote for Governor stood: Cony, Republican, 68,299; Bradbury, Democrat, 50,583; Republican majority, 17,716. The vote in the late election is reported as follows: Republican, 75,000; Democratic, 53,000; Republican majority, 22,000. It will be seen that the Republicans have gained [illegible]000 on the largest vote they ever before threw in the State, while the Democrats have gained but 3,000 on their largest vote. This sets the Maine election in its true light, and shows the magnitude of the victory just gained by the Republicans.

—The New York World says the "Democratic soldiers" of Ohio are forming an organization called the "White Boys in Blue." The Sacramento Union suggests the organization includes all those who turned white at sight of the rebels, all who deserted to them, and all rebels who treacherously wore blue during the war. There are quite a number of grey boys in blue now, and boys of all colors in outright gray. But this whole motley crowd will become very blue boys [illegible] next November.

If the Forrests, the Hamptons, the Wises, the Vallandighams and the other leaders of the rebellion gain control of the Government, how long will it be till every name on the pension roll is stricken from it, or the rebels are placed on a par with the pensioned boys in blue?

A Patriot and Christian

There are those who praise Horatio Seymour as a patriot, but it [illegible] in the New York Convention and supported by the three score delegates who had borne arms in the rebel service, and who as a mark of approbation [illegible]. They supported him in the [illegible] [illegible] the Government [illegible]. In 1863, when the Southern troops were in Pennsylvania, the Government called on Seymour, who was then Governor of New York, to furnish troops to expel them. He answered in the [illegible] of Kentucky in 1861, saying that he would not send them. He did send them, however, [illegible] It is known [illegible] unless Seymour [illegible] [illegible] them, stating that [illegible] receive the votes of their friends [illegible] [illegible] enthusiastic supporter.

There are those who extol Horatio Seymour as a Christian. But it is a fact that he had no prayers for the [illegible] He was a prominent member of the Episcopal Convention held in New York in 1863 [illegible] resolution was then [illegible] the Bishops for a form of prayer in [illegible] the wicked rebellion now [illegible] the land, for the safety of the country and the success of the army. It was [illegible] [illegible] opposition to the resolution, but Horatio Seymour took the floor, and in one of his smooth, wily speeches [illegible] its adoption. In support of his position he said he was opposed to pronouncing an opinion against our Southern brethren. The measure seemed to him like the [illegible]. But against the [illegible] He begged them to pause before condemning the absent, condemning thousands and hundreds of thousands of brethren not a man of whom were there to speak for himself. This incident, which is revived by the New York papers, beautifully illustrates Seymour's Christian and patriotic spirit in connection with each other. The only further remarks which it is necessary to make here is that the [illegible] and a majority of his supporters place him in the same category as a Christian and patriot with Jefferson Davis and Robert E. Lee. And they clearly have a true estimate of the man.

The Richmond Dispatch says: "If Seymour should endeavor to smooth off the rough corners of Blair's platform he will only injure the cause he desires to promote and lessen the chances of his own success. This is no time for temporizing." The Memphis Appeal says: "The doctrine of State sovereignty and the right of secession were not destroyed by the war. The country is too large to remain under one Government, and the day will come when the South will be independent." The Augusta (Ga.) Constitutionalist says that all the old rebel Governments shall be reinstated, though the sword has to be invoked. The Mobile Tribune says: "If we are successful in the approaching contest we shall gain all that we lost in the Lost Cause." This is what Copperheads call "accepting the situation!"

A New York dispatch of August 31 says: "Respecting the question of the exchange of prisoners, responded by Robert Ould, Charles A. Dana says in the Sun that Ould does not tell the truth. That papers in the War Office will show that the Government was at all times willing and anxious to exchange prisoners. All that it asked was that terms of exchange should be just and honestly observed. The Confederate Government on the other hand was dishonest, treacherous and cruel in the business from beginning to end." Dana's position as Assistant Secretary of War at the time gives much weight to the statement.

Before the late election in Vermont and Maine the Democrats asserted that the Republican majorities in each State would be reduced eight or ten thousand. Instead of this it was increased in each State by about that amount. The elections so far are a pleasing foretaste of November.

The Confederate Democrat of Albany informs us that the Democrats are organizing Jackson Associations throughout New England. No doubt it forgot to add that the fruits of these efforts are seen in the Maine and Vermont elections.

DEMOCRATIC SUCCESS—CIVIL WAR.—Harper's Weekly, sets forth very clearly the successive steps by which, with Democratic success in November, we should fall into anarchy.

How a Democratic success at the election would occasion civil war is easily seen. Gen. Blair does not hesitate to avow it. Congress must be wholly disregarded, the Supreme Court must not be invoked. The President must usurp all powers of the government and act alone. He must be a Cæsar. Because, says General Blair in his letter, if the President elected by the Democracy enforces or permits others to enforce these Reconstruction acts, the Radicals, by the accession of twenty spurious Senators and fifty representatives, will control both branches of Congress, and his administration will be as powerless as the present one of Mr Johnson. Force is therefore the only alternative.

If Mr Seymour be elected after this loud and reiterated declaration by his party that his election will mean forcible overthrow of the present State governments in the Southern States, the result is evident. He would officially declare those Governments void. He would then be impeached, and probably convicted; but the Democratic party, victorious at the polls, with the whole rebel force jubilant and ready, would dispute the sentence and rise against its execution. Meanwhile in the Southern States the new Democratic State organizations summoned by the President would be formed. They would dispute the State authority with the present incumbents. The President would recognize the new claimants and order the army to their support, and to trample in the dust the others. They in turn would appeal to Congress already engaged in conflict with the President. Meanwhile the Representatives and Senators from the new State organizations would [illegible] in Washington [illegible] Democratic members [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] the laws of the [illegible] [illegible] fullness of [illegible]

It is [illegible] the taxpayers of the State [illegible] at the Capital. Now [illegible] [illegible] the Legislature [illegible] [illegible] and the taxpayers of the State [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] in Salem [illegible] [illegible] all accrued excepting [illegible]

Gen Grant and the Jews

[illegible] Order No. 11 [illegible] [illegible] to support Seymour and Blair. But they have done no [illegible] thing, and his [illegible] very class of men they expected to [illegible]. In this city more Jews will vote for Grant than support him in [illegible] four years ago, and [illegible] this is true of Chicago we presume is [illegible] The Copperheads have tried to make the Jews believe that Grant is naturally a bigot, or that there is the least taint of intolerance in his nature. His whole history disproves any assumption of the sort. Grant is as liberal minded in politics and religion as any man in the United States, and every intelligent Jew in the Union understands the [illegible] circumstances under which the [illegible] order was issued, the peculiar wording of which was not seen by the General until after it was promulgated, and in the [illegible] the General [illegible] of [illegible] that the same rule was applied to clear his lines of [illegible] smugglers and contraband traders of all other nationalities and religion.

The order never harmed any one, no matter for [illegible], any man's rights or business, except a few persons of the baser sort [illegible] who [illegible] business selling whisky to his soldiers and carrying on a contraband trade with the enemy.

That the better class of Jews have not been imposed upon by Copperhead clamor about the matter is evinced in this city by the fact that three out of every four of the intelligent men of that race are supporting Grant for President, not coldly but heartily and earnestly. The head of the great Tanner organization in this city is a Jew. In one of the Tanner companies on the South Side there are forty five Jews, in another thirty six, and in the whole organization not less than 100 Jewish voters. But this is not all. It is known that fully one hundred of the Jew Tanners were Democrats previous to the nomination of Seymour and Blair, but as conservative, peace loving men they find it utterly impossible to support the incendiary, dangerous and revolutionary programme laid down by the rebels and Copperheads at the New York Convention.

One half the Democratic papers and orators are trying to get back their statements and admissions concerning General Grant's integrity and ability. One third are busily engaged in trying to take back their loud assertions made previous to the New York Convention of Seymour's unfitness for the Presidency, and the balance are trying to swear they never advocated negro suffrage. With all of them up in their several tacks they have [illegible] much time to attend to the canvass proper.

The country is insulted by having Wade Hampton and pirate Semmes paroled rebels declaring even in the presence of the President that another civil war will occur unless Congress shall [illegible] what they demand. A President having any regard for his duty, instead of listening to such defiant threats [illegible] would order these rebels under arrest and send them before a Military Commission for having forfeited their paroles.

Be it remembered that the Republican party has none of the men in its ranks who formed the rebel army, while the Democratic party contains all of them.

[illegible] TERRITORY.—A correspondent at [illegible] W. T., sends us the following information [illegible] destructive fires raging in the woods on [illegible] of the Columbia river. The fire is more [illegible] and extends over a larger area than has ever [been] known. On the morning of the 11th, as the [illegible] of our correspondent were sitting down to break[fast], a neighbor rushed in and informed them that the [fire] was rapidly approaching the dwelling. Leaving them [illegible] fled, they ran for a place of safety, and [were] barely in time to escape being cut off from retreat [illegible]. They reached the residence of Mr. Martin [illegible]. The woods for miles around the residence of [Mr.] Martin was a mass of flames. Men, women and children [went] to work with a will to save the buildings. The [illegible] other buildings of Mr. M. took fire a great [illegible], one of the buildings had a large hole burned [in] the roof, and it was only by the most strenuous efforts [that] anything was saved. The fire ran through the [illegible] and burned nearly all of the fences on the place. [illegible] place is half a mile from that of Mr. [illegible] everything: his house, fences, crops, and [illegible] completely swept away. The telegraph line is [illegible] for miles, and in some places the wire has [illegible] for several feet, by the heat. The wind [illegible] by the fire tore up fruit trees by the roots. Mr. [illegible], and had the hardest kind of work [illegible] village. I learn that Mr. G. Love had to [sit] up all night and watch his houses, etc. Mr. Lewis [illegible] place in the timber, is all burnt up, rails, fences, [illegible], etc. John Bogarths had a hard time to save his [illegible]. The fire traveled at the rate of at least five miles [illegible] for a time in the dry timber. The fire is still [illegible] and there is no telling the amount of damage it [illegible]. The roads are filled with fallen timber. The [illegible] large, [illegible] of bark fully one mile; leaves, [illegible] for at least three miles.

[illegible]—From a gentleman just down from [the] mining district we learn the following facts relative [to] that rich mining section. The mill of the [illegible] is engaged in crushing ore from the [illegible], which is yielding considerable bullion. [illegible], W. Wills, agent, has fine mills, [illegible] to set up on some rich ledge, and [illegible] a critical examination of the Lucy [illegible] will be purchased by them if results are [illegible] has been exhibited by [illegible], and from the manner and extensiveness [illegible] so far, the people of Idaho expect [illegible] from their workings in the mines of that [illegible]. The [illegible] Company, E. C. Atkins, agent, [illegible] recently, 1,000 feet of the Atlanta lode, [illegible] in erecting a mill and taking out ore. [illegible] for 1,000 feet of the richest portion [illegible] of the members of this Company [illegible] and are men of large means and integrity. Mr. Atkins, the Superin[tendent], [illegible] permanently in the district, having [illegible] him. The Minerva Ledge has a reputa[tion] [illegible] has no superior in the Yuba District. [illegible] has been driven into the mountain, which [illegible] a point 150 feet below the surface where [illegible] rich, containing both gold and sil[ver] [illegible] little baser metal. It is therefore [illegible] than an ordinary one. There [illegible] other ledges which have been prospected, to [illegible] favorable results when facili[ties] [illegible] the ore are furnished. Among these [illegible] the Pacific, Olive Branch, Golden Wreath and Har[illegible] of California and Nevada, who [illegible] pronounce it to be richest and [illegible] on the Pacific slope.

[illegible] ITEMS.—We clip the subjoined items [illegible] of Saturday: Good cattle are get[ting] [illegible] of an [illegible] speculation east [illegible]. Cows and young stock will be sold [illegible] for less than the prices now held [illegible] in the [illegible] continues with unabated [illegible] last, smoke was so dense in this vi[cinity] [illegible] to light lamps to see to work [illegible] P. PLANTATION BITTERS combine the rare medical virtues with a delicious aroma, and a flavor grateful to the palate. It is pure vegetable and in its composition all the requisites of a [illegible] tonic are combined with [illegible]. It is agreeable [illegible]. It is gentle, stimulating and soothing, [illegible] dyspeptic disorders are cured by it, and it repairs and restores nature's waste powers. Plantation Bitters are increasing daily in favor with all classes. It relieves suffering, renders life a luxury, brightens the present, and throws a hopeful light on the future.

Health brightens every prospect in Life.—You that are suffering with that dread disease, Consumption, get a bottle of NEWELL'S PULMONARY SYRUP, if one does not cure you, get another; give it a fair trial and it will surely have the desired effect.

Dazzling.—A few turns of the wrist, a piece of chamoise leather, and a few grains of Electro-Silicon or Magic Brilliant are all that are required to make the dullest pewter shine with dazzling brilliance. Redington & Co., sole agents for San Francisco, sell immense quantities of this wonderful substance which polishes everything from a gold bracelet to a tin pot.

No cause for doubt that the most valuable medicine of the class, on account of its adaptation to a wider range of diseases than any other preparation, is DR. E. COOPER'S UNIVERSAL MAGNETIC BALM. The greatest Family Medicine ever offered to the public.

I am now making, amongst numerous other styles of ARTIFICIAL TEETH, the improved Vulcanite Plates of Dr. G. W. Cool's Patent, patented Dec. 3, 186-, the improvement of which consists in lining the entire concave surface with fine gold; it not only makes the plate double as strong and cleanlier than the common Vulcanite Plate. It also can by it be made considerably thinner and lighter, whereas the price is but little above that for common plates. Call and see specimens.
N. B.—Dentists wishing to secure the office right for Dr. G. W. Cool's Improved Vulcanite Plates can have it made out to them by applying to this office.
N. B.—To strangers I would say, that a constantly increasing Dental Practice for the last five years in this city, will be a sufficient guarantee for those to receive a First Class and Finished Piece of Work. Numerous testimonials to the same can be given at the office.

G. VENARD,
CHARTRES COFFEE!
Manufactory Established in June, 1851.
STEAM POWER, NOS. 625 AND 627 FRONT ST.
HAS CONSTANTLY ON HAND GROUND AND ROASTED COFFEE, GREEN COFFEE of the best qualities. CREAM OF TARTAR and SPICES of all sorts.
The undersigned, who has always enjoyed public confidence for the excellent quality of his Coffee, neglects nothing to justify the good name acquired by his productions, the sale of which daily increases. The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise, which commands here, and in the markets of the interior, a relatively higher price, excites the cupidity of some manufacturers, and every day he sees increasing the number of those who, by counterfeit or imitation of his mark, seek to deceive the public, palming upon them their inferior productions for the genuine G. VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud can deceive nobody after a trial, but only adds to the favorable opinion of the consumers, the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters. Nevertheless, buyers should be forewarned, and placed on their guard against this practice.
BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS.

DATES TO SEPTEMBER 17.

New York Items

NEW YORK, Sept. 17.—The [illegible] investigation came before Commissioner [illegible] they stated that the [illegible] official [illegible] Washington arrangements were made [illegible] gentleman associated with the [illegible] and he intended to retain charge of the [illegible] regardless of whom might [illegible], but requested the postponement until his [illegible] was selected. The case was postponed [illegible].

An auction sale of the pews in the new Jewish Synagogue has realized the sum of $250,000, which will defray all the indebtedness and place $100,000 in the sinking fund.

The upper portion of James Gordon Bennett's house on Washington Heights, was burned to-day. The damage was $20,000.

The first innings of the English Cricketers were finished to-day in the game begun yesterday. The score was one hundred and seventy five. The American players completed their first innings this afternoon, making sixty-one.

NEW YORK, Sept. 18.—There was a very large torch light procession to-night, comprising several thousand boys in blue. Addresses were made at the Cooper Institute by Generals Sickles, Kilpatrick and others.

The new Custom Bureau to be formed at the Custom House will be known as the Twelfth District and will have the jurisdiction of the coastwise trade between the Atlantic and the Pacific ports by way of the Isthmus. A deputy collector and several assistants will be appointed for this city, also for San Francisco.

Miscellaneous.

LOUISVILLE, Sept. 18.—For the past two weeks the streams in Kentucky have swollen to a great height. The low lands are overflown and crops submerged.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 18.—The mare Lady Thorne has been sold to Mr. Welch, of Chestnut Hill, for $[illegible].

SCRANTON, Sept. 18.—The first killing frost fell last night. There will be a heavier one to-night.

AUGUSTA, (Ga.) Sept. 18.—The Senate to-day considered the [illegible] of the Governor regarding their action, and on declaring the seats of colored members vacant. The Governor protests that this action is unconstitutional and in opposition to the spirit of the convention which framed the State Constitution. The House passed by a vote of 100 to 109, a substitute to the January bill, which [illegible] grand and petit jurors on the same footing. It permits none but intelligent and upright persons to sit on juries, and excludes [illegible].

The McGee Murder.

OTTAWA, Sept. 18.—Patrick Blakely, one of the accomplices in the McGee murder, is said to be insane. Whelan strongly protests that he did not shoot McGee, he knows who did. It is expected he will make a full confession shortly.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE

NEW YORK, Sept. 17.—The London Times contrasts the political canvass in Great Britain with that in the United States. In both cases the electors are new, only here in [illegible] there are many contests between differing men and principles, which result in a confused babel in which no sound is heard above the rest. The incidents thus far have been peaceful and even negative, but the eight weeks remaining before the elections may warm the contest now so quiet. The Times dwells on the violent [illegible] of the Presidential fight in the United States. It calls the American general election an American carnival; the American people may be serious and industrial, but they allow the most eccentric and grotesque characters to represent the whole people, which does them some injustice, but less harm than is commonly thought.

[illegible] Moran, Secretary of the American legation has gone on a special mission to St. Petersburg. He also carries [illegible] to the American Embassy at Berlin. [illegible], Minister at Berlin, is traveling in South Germany.

[illegible], Sept. 17.—A letter to the Independence Belge from [illegible], on the 8th instant, states that the Turkish authorities have suppressed an attempt [illegible] the day of the [illegible] of the [illegible] king. An attache of the American [illegible] is one of the persons arrested. It is said that [illegible] for his release but was refused.

[illegible], Sept. 17.—Minister Bancroft is expected here this week to exchange ratifications of the naturalization treaty just concluded.

OUR SAN FRANCISCO DISPATCH

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 19.—Yesterday Henry Martin, a [illegible] man, [illegible] by swallowing two ounces of [illegible].

The fire in Marin county still continues. The line of fire [illegible] to-day was two miles in length and swept every thing [illegible]. The work at the powder and paper mills [illegible] creek stopped yesterday, and all of the [illegible] engaged in taking energetic measures to counteract [illegible].

The steamship Great Republic, from Hong Kong and [illegible], arrived [illegible] Chinese [illegible] and children [illegible] the number are [illegible] but parties interested [illegible] and obtained [illegible].

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

OUR SAN FRANCISCO DISPATCH.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 20.—The Seymour Guard, a new [illegible] made their first appearance last evening, and marched through the streets, their band playing Dixie and other Southern airs.

[illegible] Avrill [illegible] a Democratic meeting in the 8th Ward [illegible] the adjournment of the meeting [illegible] to Congress Hall with the [illegible] of making a riot with Freedom's Defenders. The [illegible] of the latter body had adjourned [illegible] were standing in front of the Hall [illegible] the Guards [illegible] were resented and there was every prospect of a row, knives, etc., being drawn, but the police arrived in time to prevent bloodshed. Several [illegible] wounds were [illegible]. The affair resulted in the arrest of a Union man by the [illegible] he was not concerned in the riot, at least he was not [illegible] in the affair.

[illegible] was made yesterday by the [illegible] ship [illegible] several hawsers without moving the [illegible].

The [illegible] Yung Sing Ping [illegible] arrived by [illegible] from China yesterday. The company number [illegible] and their [illegible] is here.

The health [illegible] reports 38 [illegible] during the past week, 18 of which were by small pox.

The deep cut on the Protrero Railroad was completed [illegible], and the cars now run through to Bay View.

Union Meeting at Stockton.

[illegible], Sept. 20.—Quite a large number of ladies and gentlemen assembled at the Agricultural Hall last evening to hear the Hon. A. A. Sargent, Union candidate for Congress for the Second District. The people [illegible] and [illegible] arguments [illegible] appreciated by [illegible], who manifested their appreciation by loud and [illegible] applause. His discourse continued two hours. At the close, three cheers were given for the [illegible] and three for Grant and Colfax.

Political [illegible].

The [illegible] Herald says: "Frank Blair [illegible] days an enthusiast. [illegible] ago he was a [illegible] Republican, now he is a radical [illegible]. What he will be a year from this time the Lord only knows."

Had the [illegible] the [illegible] of the Government would have secured nearly one half of the public domain. If the Democratic party [illegible] in November, the same men will secure control of the whole country.

The Tanners of Omaha, (Neb.) carry the old [illegible] flag of the First Nebraska Cavalry which [illegible] following honors: "Milford, Donnelson, Shiloh, Corinth, Cape Girardeau, Chalk Bluff, [illegible], [illegible], Jacksonport, and Clarendon. It is riddled with bullet holes.

Robert Smith, one of the chivalric sons of the South, who attended the late Democratic Convention in Nevada, attended the late Democratic Convention in Nevada attended the Democratic Ball at Grass Valley, got drunk and was locked up in the streets by the police. The fact was mentioned in the Gazette and he undertook to whip the editor and got essentially whipped himself.

In nearly every section of the South the Democratic rebel leaders are hard at work coaxing [illegible] the black men into voting the Democratic ticket. Here at the north the [illegible] of the same party are holding up the black man as a species of baboon, unfit for political fellowship with white men.

STATE ITEMS

The Linn county Fair will be held this week. A large attendance is anticipated.

A Fair is to be held at Salem by the Orphans Aid Society on the 25th and 26th inst.

The regular session of Wallamet University began last week under encouraging auspices.

Last week the Salem mills received 10,060 bushels of wheat, for which they pay [illegible] cents.

A kiln of over 700,000 brick was burned last week at the Penitentiary brickyard. It is the largest ever burned in the State.

A man named Roffum, an employee in the Springfield (Lane County) mill, had his hand cut [illegible] by a circular saw on the 16th inst.

Owing to the low stage of the river considerable quantities of goods are now being hauled in wagons from Oregon City to Salem.

A few days ago the granary of Mr. Frum of Sand Ridge, Linn county, was set on fire by persons unknown, and 1,500 bushels of wheat destroyed.

Methodist statistics for Oregon, for the year 1868, are as follows: Number of members 3,11[illegible]; number of churches, 15, valued at $93,650; No. of Sunday schools, 83; No. of teachers, [illegible]91; No. of scholars, [illegible]909; No. of volumes in Sunday school libraries 12,258. There are, in the Conference, 61 ministers, who received, last year, a salary of $10,412 02. The next Annual Conference is at Eugene City.

The Mountaineer learns that everything was quiet last week at Canyon City. The weather has been quite cold there for two or three days past. The roads are in good condition although very dusty. Every person seems sanguine as regards the new discoveries and some prospecting parties having returned, it is more than likely they will try their future operations up in the new mines. Among the parties that have returned is Mr. R. H. Comer's which left Canyon this summer for Crooked River.

The Unionist of Saturday says: Some parties attempted last night to disturb the hurdy gurdy saloon at a late hour, by arresting a culprit whom it was supposed perpetrated the recent burglary at Independence. Sundry shots of pistols and shot guns were exchanged, but the parties being not much accustomed to the use of that kind of deadly weapons, nobody was hurt. The public will regard it as a calamity, first, that such a row occurred in the eminently quiet town of Salem, and second, that the parties there were not all killed. That "hurly gurly" saloon is an abomination which ought to be suppressed. It inveigles young men and boys, who are not depraved, into vice, and it panders to the vicious indulgences of older men. If law can't reach it, what could a mob do? Citizens, we have no use for such an institution. Can't we abate it? In the name of God and morality let us try!

IDAHO

The Hawk Eye lode, now being worked at Warren's camp, is paying one hundred dollars to the ton.

Associate Justice R. T. Miller, filed his oath of office on the 25th of August last in the Territorial Secretary's office.

Two quartz mills are now running in Warren's camp. The Lewiston paper says these, together with the arastras will fully develop the value of the quartz of that camp and induce the importation of larger mills and improved machinery.

The Lewiston paper says: A good wagon road can be made from this place to Grand Ronde Valley, to eighty five miles and with no great cost. This would connect the valley with the head of navigation of the Columbia and Snake rivers. From La Grande to Wallula it is one hundred and ten miles.

A new mining camp has been found about thirty miles from Pierce City, in the Bald Mountain district, and about twenty miles from the old bald Mountain diggings. The creek on which this new camp has been discovered is about ten miles in length, and it is thought that paying claims can be found on the entire distance.

CONGREGATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF OREGON.—From the minutes of the last meeting we select the following items:

The Association met at Forest Grove, and continued its session four days. Eleven ministers were present and twelve delegates. Eight churches were reported, and the statistics represent the churches as progressing. The total membership of the churches 413. The additions for the last year are 40. Sabbath School scholars 490. For Home Missions four of the churches contributed $92 45, for Foreign Missions $42 45, for other objects five churches report $1,296 13. Average attendance on public worship in five of the churches, in the aggregate, 480. Reports were presented on Sabbath Schools, Religious Condition of the Country, Temperance, Religious Publications, and Home Missions, all of which breathe the spirit of earnest and good men. Rev. O. Dickinson was recommended as General Agent of the A. H. M. S. for Oregon and adjoining territories.

A SURE remedy for CHILLS AND FEVER. AYER'S AGUE CURE never fails.

SOOTHING AND BRACING.—There is no preparation in existence which has such a soothing effect in cases of nervous excitement as

DR. HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS.

Although the fame of this renowned invigorant rests mainly on its astonishing cures of Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint and intestinal disorders, it is equally efficacious in nervous complaints. Thousands of ladies resort to it as a remedy for hysteria, fluttering of the heart, nervous headache, vertigo, general debility and all peculiar disturbances and derangements to which, as a sex, they are subject. It cheers and lightens the depressed mental powers as well as strengthens the body, and its use is never followed by any unpleasant reaction. Sold by all Druggists and dealers everywhere.

EXTINGUISHER

SELF-ACTING FIRE ENGINE!

THIS INVENTION HAS FOR ITS OBJECT THE extinguishing of Fires in a more instantaneous manner than has hitherto been discovered.

The advantages to be derived from the use of the EXTINGUISHER are as follows:

Every fire begins on a small scale, and its rapid and uncontrollable increase is owing to the fact that at the time of its commencement (when every moment's delay in checking it is of the utmost importance) no means are ready at hand.

The EXTINGUISHER is the only Engine that fills this requirement.

It is always ready for use, though standing unused for years.

It puts out Fire instantly.

It saves the great deluge of water now used for this purpose.

It is as effective in the hands of a Boy as the most experienced Fireman.

It is portable, and as easily handled as a bucket of water.

It possesses within itself the power of a force pump and as effective as a Steam Engine.

It is the only known invention that will put out Fires from Kerosene, Tar, Naphtaline, and combustible materials now in common use.

PRICE—No. 1, $60; No. 2, $55; No. 3, $50.

PACIFIC TURBINE WATER WHEEL.

THESE WHEELS EXCEL ANY OTHER WHEEL in use, and are no infringement on the Leffel American Turbine, but excel it in every particular.

CAUTION.

To all whom it may concern:—One A. Myers is publishing and circulating a statement that my wheel is an infringement on the Leffel wheel, and he will "prosecute said infringement to the utmost extent of the Law." His statements are not worth a denial. His game is "Bluff," which if he will only take the case to Court would soon be played out. Don't believe him!

I would be glad to get a case into the United States Court and get a decision. That would forever stop the mouth of Myers and his misrepresentations. The legal opinions of more reputable lawyers than Dodge & Munn and A. Myers have pronounced my patents no infringement on the American Turbine. H. W. SHIPLEY.
